No.A2.1095/51 dated 10.11.51.

Sir,

Sub: Establishment-Upper subordinate-Sri K. Lakshminarayana Rao-Assistant in Cotton-Extension of probation for failure to pass the prescribed tests during the period of probation-Requested.

Sri K.Lakshminarayana Rao, Assistant in Cotton, Westerns Cotton Improvement Scheme Hagari P.O.Bellary district was promoted as Upper Subordinate from Fieldman and placed on Probation for a period of two years with effect from 16.6.1948 He completed his probation period of first two years on 15.6.1950 but has not passed the Account Test for Subordinate Officers-Part I within that period. Hence his probation was extended for one year more with effect from 16.6.1950 under rule 23(A) of the General Rules for the Madras State and Subordinate Services so as to enable him to pass the said test.

2. He has not passed the Account Test for subordinate Officers-Part I Examination even within the extended period of probation in spite of his appearing for the examination held in June 1951. The extended period of probation of this subordinate expired on 13.8.1951 A.N. as calculated below:-

Date of commencement of extended period of probation.	16.6.1950 F.N.
	Y. M. D
From 16.6.50 to 7.11.50	0 4 23
From 8.11.50 to 6.1.51 Earned leave excluded)
From 7.1.51 to 6.8.51	0 7 0
From 7.8.51 to 13.8.51 A.N.	0 0 7
Total period.	1 0 0

3. He was awarded a censure for his fraudulent conduct in the examination hall during the Account Test Examination held in June 1951.

4. He reports that his failure is due to a series of domestic troubles like sickness of his wife, his own sickness, death of a child, and prolonged sickness of his dependent sister ailing from Pulmonary disease.

5. Though he had such domestic troubles during these years, he has discharged his official duties efficiently during this period. Having regard to the fact that his work has otherwise been satisfactory, I request that Government may be pleased to relax the provisions of Rule 23(A) of the General Rules in his favour and to order extension of his Probation for one more year with effect from 14.8.1951 F.N. (OR) till the passing of examination whichever is earlier.

6. The confidential dossier of Sri K.Lakshminarayana Rao containing 23 sheets is sent herewith. Its receipt may kindly be acknowledged.

Read:- From the D.A. Cotton A2/1095/51-d 10.11.51.

Orders No. 2379 Dated. 13.12.51

Sri K. Lakshminarayana, Asst in Cotton, Western Cotton Improvement Scheme, Haqari, Bellary District was appointed as Upper subordinate and placed on probation for a period of two years from the date he commenced his probation on 16.6.48. He did not pass the prescribed Account Test for subordinate officers, Part I within the period of probation. The D.A. therefore extended his probation for a period of one year under rule 23(A) of the General Rules for Madras State and Subordinate Services to enable him to pass the test. The Subordinate did not pass the test even during the extended period of probation which expired on 13.8.51. A.N. The D.A. has recommended that the relevant rules may be relaxed in favour of the candidate and his probation extended by another year upto 14.8.1952 F.N. or till he passes the examination whichever is earlier.

His Excellency the Governor of Madras in exercise of the powers conferred under the rules published with notification No. 16. Pub(Sa) dated 26.1.50 at page 272 of Part I of the Fort St George Gazette dated 7.2.1950 relaxes rule 23(A) of the General rules for Madras State and Subordinate services in favour of Sri K. Lakshmi Narayana, Asst in Cotton, Haqari, Bellary District and directs that his probation be extended only for his misconduct by a further period of six months i.e. upto 14.2.52 F.N.

To A.S.

Please see the proposal of the D.A. on pages 1 & 4.

2. According to rule 9 of the Spl rules for H.A.S.S. an Upper Subordinate should pass the Account test for Subordinate officers part 1 within the period of two years of probation. A.S. Sri K Lakshminarayana Rao, Asst in Cotton who commenced his probation on ~~from~~ 16.6.48 did not pass the test, the D.A extended his probation by a period of one year under Rule 23(A) of the General Rules for Madras State and Subordinate Services. So as to enable him to pass the said test. The Candidate did not pass the test ~~during~~ every during the extended period of probation which expired on ~~the~~ 13.8.51 A.N. The D.A. has now requested that Rule 23(A) of the General Rules for the State and Subordinate Services may be relaxed in his favour by extending his probation till 14.8.52 F.N or till passing of the examination whichever is earlier. The reasons for his recommendation are given in paras 4 and 5 of his letter at P/4

~~It is submitted that in addition to Pub(3a) has stated that rule to be relaxed in favour of Sri is rule 8 of the HASS~~

It is for orders whether ~~the~~ Rule 23(A) of the General Rules for State and Subordinate Services may be relaxed in ~~his~~ favour of the petitioner and his probation extended beyond one year till 14.8.52 F.N or till the passing of the examination of the Account test whichever is earlier as recommended by the DA.

~~I have read the D.A. and extended my patronage after Upper Subs for Main Scale~~

From the confl report this man's work appears to be satisfactory but he was guilty of very heinous misconduct of putting somebody else's Regn No in his answer papers in the Accts Test Examination in order to get a pass. The D.A on the complaint of the M.P.S.C appears to have taken a surprisingly lenient view & let him off with a 'Censure'. The Subordinate appears to have confessed that he was guilty of the misconduct in a moment of weakness.

This man was promoted as Apl Deputy from the rank of Telegraphman & has put in about 14 years service. I doubt if he deserves any sympathy & the D.A recommended the extension of probation for one year from 14.8.57 for not passing the Accts Test. I would recommend extension only till end of December 51 which would leave him chances for appearing for the Dec Exam. I would also tell D.A that the punishment of censure was very light.

THIRD ASSISTANT SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT 818/2/451 28 NOV 1951 FOOD

FOOD AND AGRI. DEPT. (L)

Sri K. Lakshminarayana Rao, Asst. in Cotton in the Agrl. Dept. at Hagari, Bellary district commenced his probation in that post on 16/6/48. He should pass the Account test for Subordinate officers, part 1, within the peri of his probation. The period of probation is two years. He did not pa the test by 16/6/50. The D.A. therefore extended his probation by one year under rule 23 A of the General Rules for State and Subordinate Services so as to enable him to pass the test. He took leave from 8/11/ to 6/1/51. The extended period of one year therefore expired on 13/8/51. The D.A. reports that the subordinate has not passed the test during the extended period of probation. As the subordinate had a series of domestic troubles and his work was satisfactory in spite of these trouble the D.A. recommends that his probation may be extended by one more year i.e. till 13--8--52 or till the passing of the test whichever is earlier. This Dept. observe that the subordinate was guilty of a very heinous misconduc of putting somebody else's Register No. in his answer paper in the Accoun Test Examination in order to get a pass. The D.A. only gave a censure for this misconduct. This Dept. consider that the punishment was very light with reference to the gravity of the offence and that it would be sufficient if he is given time only till the end of December, 1951 which will leave him a chance of appearing for the December Examination.

Pub. (Ser.) Dept. agree with these views. The case may now be circulated for orders.

i) whether the probation may be extended only till the end December, 1951 and the D.A. told that the punishment of 'Censure' awarded to him was very light, as proposed by this dept. and accepted by Public (Ser.) Dept.

ii) whether the recommendation of the D.A. to extend the probation of the subordinate till 14--8--52 or till his passing the test whichever is earlier, may be accepted.
